

Random Tuesday

RandomTuesday is a full time content creator, with a focus on cosplay and sewing. She creates detailed blog posts, PDF patterns and YouTube Tutorials for each of her cosplay projects, to help others create their own cosplays. She also live streams her builds regularly on Twitch, where she can demonstrate sewing and fabrication techniques.

RandomTuesday has been sewing since as long as she could be trusted with a needle and thread, and has been making cosplays for over 10 years. Cosplay presents many unique sewing challenges, requiring the use of new techniques and skills with each project. RandomTuesday is delighted to be able to share her knowledge with others, and help more people create!
